

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Enoch Henry Currier, January 24, 1902

January 24, 1902. Mr. Enoch Henry Currier, Institution for the Deaf, 163rd St. & Broadway, New York. Dear Mr. Currier:—

I beg to acknowledge receipt of the original copy of 1–17th Reports of New York Institution by express; also your note of January 22.

For all — my thanks. I will return the volume as soon as possible, and reply to your kind note later.

Yours sincerely, Alexander Graham Bell
